Tyler Announces The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award National Player of the Week

TYLER, Texas – TCU wide receiver Josh Doctson has been named the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award National Player of the Week for the fourth week of the college football season.

The Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week tied the TCU and Big 12 single-game records with 18 receptions for 267 yards and three touchdowns in the Horned Frogs' 55-52 win at Texas Tech. The 18 catches are the most by an FBS player this season and only three others have achieved the feat since 2013. It tied the Big 12 mark set in 1996 and the TCU record set in 1990. The 267 receiving yards broke the TCU single-game mark of 226 set in 2008. Doctson's three touchdown catches give him 21 in his career to rank second on the Horned Frogs' all-time list behind only Josh Boyce with 22. Doctson was also honored as Walter Camp National Player of the Week.

Doctson is a graduate of Legacy High School in Mansfield, Texas.
